Base Contract
 Definition of Total Disability	During the first 24 months of disability, an insured is totally disabled if unable to perform the substantial and material duties of his or her regular occupation and is not engaged in any other occupation for wage or profit. After 24 months of disability, an insured is totally disabled if unable to perform the substantial and material duties of any occupation and is not engaged in any other occupation for wage or profit. If the insured's regular occupation is limited to a single medical specialty recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) or American Osteopathic Association Bureau of Osteopathic Specialists (AOABOS) or American Dental Association (ADA), that specialty is deemed the insured's regular occupation. Have option to extend the regular occupation definition through the full benefit period by adding the Regular Occupation Extension Rider.	For the first 24 months of benefit payments, an insured is totally disabled if unable to perform the material and substantial duties of his or her regular occupation and is not engaged in any occupation. After benefits have been payable for 24 months, an insured is totally disabled if unable to perform the material and substantial duties of any occupation. If the insured's regular occupation is a nationally recognized specialty, will consider the duties insured is routinely performing as part of his or her occupation when disability begins. Will consider insured's occupation as it is normally performed for that specialty instead of how work tasks are performed for a specific employer or location. Have option to extend the regular occupation (own occupation and not working) definition through the full benefit period within the base policy.
